Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(ii): The Commission expects to be able to provide defense counsel with documents produced in the Commission’s Magnum d’Or and Gibraltar investigations on a rolling basis beginning approximately August 26. There are nearly two million documents to be produced and a rolling production should be more manageable than a single large production at a later date. Rolling production will continue to completion.

Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(iii): The SEC does not seek “damages” as the term is used in the rule. Instead, the Commission’s statutes provide for civil penalties and the Commission typically seeks disgorgement of proceeds of unlawful conduct. Civil penalties are provided by Sec. 20(d) of the Securities Act of 1933, 15 U.S.C. §77t(d), and Sec. 21(d)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. § 78u(d)(3). For disgorgement purposes, a accounting of proceeds of the defendants’ unlawful conduct must await completion of discovery, especially production of records showing the total amount of unlawful MDOR sales, for which defendants are jointly and severally responsible to disgorge along with the MDOR litigation defendants, and a calculation of all commissions and other forms of profit realized by the defendants from solicited transactions with U.S. customers in MDOR and other securities.

Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(iv): The Commission has no insurance agreements relevant to this law enforcement action.
